protection of personal information outlined in 41 CFR 51-9.7, Disclosure of Information about an Individual.

§51-9.101-5 Safeguarding systems of records.

The Executive Director shall ensure that appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards are established to ensure the security and confidentiality of records and to protect against any anticipated threats or hazards to their security or integrity which could result in substantial harm, embarrassment, inconvenience, or unfairness to any individual on whom information is maintained.

§51-9.102 Availability of records.

Committee records pertaining to an individual shall be made available to the subject individual to the greatest extent possible. Disclosures of records to other than the subject individual will be made only in accordance with Subpart 51–9.2 of this part.

§51-9.102-1 Specific exemptions.

Systems of records maintained by the Committee which have been exempted from certain requirements of the Privacy Act are designated in Subpart 51–9.6 of this part. An individual shall have access to all exempted records containing information about him under procedures outlined in Subpart 51–9.3 of this part. Upon request, an individual shall receive an accounting of any disclosure of information about him.

Subpart 51–9.2—Disclosure of Records

§ 51-9.201 Conditions of disclosure.

No Committee member or employee of the Committee shall disclose any record to any person or to another agency without the express written consent of the subject individual unless the disclosure is:

- (a) To Committee members or employees who have a need for the information in the official performance of their duties.
- (b) Required under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

- (c) For a routine use as published in the annual notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.
- (d) To the Bureau of Census for uses pursuant to Title 13.
- (e) To a recipient who has provided the agency with advance adequate written assurance that the record will be used solely as a statistical research or reporting record and the record is to be transferred in a form that is not individually identifiable. The written statement should include as a minimum:
- (1) A statement of the purpose for requesting the records, and
- (2) Certification that the records will be used only for statistical purposes.

These written statements shall be maintained as records. In addition to stripping, personally identifying information from records released for statistical purpose, the Committee will ensure that the identity of the individual cannot reasonably be deducted by combining various statistical records.

- (f) To the National Archives of the United States as a record which has sufficient historical or other value to warrant its continued preservation by the United States Government, or for evaluation by the Administrator of General Services or his designee to determine whether the record has such value.
- (g) To another agency or instrumentality of any governmental jurisdiction within or under the control of the United States for a civil or criminal law enforcement activity if the activity is authorized by law, and if the head of the agency or instrumentality has made a written request to the agency which maintains the record specifying the particular portion desired and the law enforcement activity for which the record is sought.
- (h) To a person showing compelling circumstances affecting the health and safety of an individual (not necessarily the individual to whom the record pertains). Upon such disclosure, a notification of such shall be sent to the last known address of the individual.
- (i) To either House of Congress or to a subcommittee or committee (joint or of either House, to the extent that the
